Market Commentary (as of Sept. 30, 2019)

Our biggest sector overweights were in Communication Services, Consumer Staples and Consumer Discretionary, while our biggest sector underweights remain in Materials, Industrials and Information Technology.

Top contributors to performance were ASML Holding, Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing, UPS, Proctor and Gamble and Apple, while the main detractors from performance were SAP, Tencent, Facebook, Johnson & Johnson and Chevron.

Notable changes for the third quarter 2019: Sold Pfizer (in order to avoid a potential negative tax impact due to a pending M&A transaction) and purchased Amgen (a world leading biotechnology company focused on the development, manufacturing and commercialization of novel bio-therapeutics).

How does the Fund operate in accordance with Islamic principles?

Islamic investment principles generally preclude investments in certain kinds of businesses or sectors in prohibited/haram areas, such as alcohol, tobacco, pork (a non-halal animal) related products, financial services, weapons and defence, entertainment, and gambling. If an issuer's primary business activity results in the issuer being classified into any one of the following industry classifications, it will not be deemed to be compliant with Shari'ah (i.e. it will not be a "Shari'ah Compliant Company"):

Defence, Distillers & Vintners, Food Products, Recreational Products, Tobacco, Food Retailers & Wholesalers, Broadcasting & Entertainment, Media Agencies, Gambling, Hotels, Recreational Services, Restaurants & Bars, Banks, Full Line Insurance, Insurance Brokers, Property & Casualty Insurance, Reinsurance, Life Insurance, Real Estate Holding & Development, Consumer Finance, Specialty Finance, Investment Services, and Mortgage Finance. The Fund will not invest in such issuers.

Moreover, if an issuer's primary business activity results in the issuer being classified into another industry classification, but the issuer has a material interest in, or revenues from, prohibited business activities, it will not be deemed to be a Shari'ah Compliant Company, and so the Fund will not invest in such issuers.

Islamic investment principles also preclude investments in issuers with unacceptable levels of debt or interest income based on certain financial ratios. If an issuer has unacceptable levels of debt or interest income, it will not be deemed to be a Shari'ah Compliant Company, and the Fund will not invest in such issuers.
